INTENSIVE DRIVE PLANNED TO MAKE CITY BEAUTY SPOT

Clean-up Campaign Will Start Next Month With All Cooperating

CHAMBER TAKES LEAD

Many Features Contemplated For First Annual Fire Prevention Week

By Ted Combs

Fires in the home are easier to prevent than to extinguish—and most of these are the result of carelessness or neglect, easily preventable. Such is the persuasion of the Fire Prevention committee of the Chamber of Commerce. Such is to be the mindedness, they are determined, of each householder in Upland, with a remedial attitude. This was the theme of a meeting of the committee last Tuesday night.

Date Not Set

May 19 will undoubtedly be the opening date of our own Fire Prevention, Clean Up, Paint Up week, although this date is not definite. During this week plans, programs and plots will be in the direction of making Upland a showspot in the Southland.

Store windows will feature exhibits and displays of a community-building aspect; service clubs will devote time to the consideration of the demon, Fire; all other organizations, it is hoped, will feature the spirit of Clean-up as well; the schools and churches will have definite part in the week's activities; a home-beautiful contest, with prizes, may be inaugurated—and all in order to insure the standing of our community as amongst the highest.

Engineer May Come

Negotiations are now being completed for the visiting of a renouned fire-prevention engineer who will cooperate with the Fire Department in the locating and diagnosing of special fire hazards. It is hoped that every vacant lot, alley and yard will be cleared of weeds and rubbish. To this end the City will furnish free hauling during the week.

Now is the time to begin cleaning that vacant lot of weeds. Hoeing and plowing is much easier now that later when the vegetation becomes tough and dried. By waiting until the weeds are dry enough to burn an unwarranted fire hazard is created.

The fire boys have assured a demonstration fire run as an added attraction. These men have devoted a wealth of time and effort toward the cause which we, the citizens, now have opportunity to further.

Ideas will be gratefully received by members of the committee—R. T. Baldwin, G. A. Brest, F. E. Draper, F. H. Manker and Ted Combs. Watch the columns of the Upland News for more information on this, our first annual Fire Prevention Week.

WATER REACHED IN CITY'S NEW WELL

New Source Reached at 443 Feet, With Casing to Be Sent Deeper

Upland's new well today has water.

Water was reached in well No. 7 on Sixth avenue, near Ninth street, Wednesday night. The well shaft was 443 feet deep and a digding rig will start next week in going down 450 feet further.

According to Richard G. Manley, city engineer, water from this well will be available for use here in two months. It is his belief that the well taps water in the Chino basin.

Digging for the well started more than a month ago and water was not expected before a depth of 450 feet.

BOYS PLANT CORN

Two ambitious Upland boys, "Bill" Wilding and "Don" Lane, who have been in the employ of ranchmen around here, have decided to try an interesting experiment. They have ploughed and seeded five and one-half acres in corn on south San Antonio avenue to supply Californians with sweet corn during the summer months. They plan to do the work themselves. They also have an acreage of strawberries which will be ready to bear next year.

Cloudy Weather Just Right Say Citrus Experts

Some people have been heard to complain the past few days because of the continued fog and cloudy weather; but not so the citrus growers. According to the growers this weather is "fine, you bet," "just what we ordered," and it "couldn't be beat."

Both oranges and lemons are being benefited. Such weather, they say, prevents the ripening oranges from falling and stimulates growth in the lemons.

Picking conditions are ideal, the packing managers say, and the work is moving along satisfactorily.

So if the fog helps the fruit, it is all right with the rest of us—there will be plenty of sunshine bye and bye.

MRS. BURT AGAIN HEADS THE P.T.A.

Local Woman Honored by Fifth District Leaders on Tuesday

One of the most successful meetings in the history of the Fifth district, Parent-Teacher association, was held Tuesday in the First Presbyterian church in San Bernardino.

Henry Meyer Has Bones Broken in Jump to Floor

Henry Meyer, 50 years old, is confined to the San Antonio Community hospital, suffering from fractures of bones in both heels as the result of an accident which befell him earlied in the week while employed at the Upland Lemon Growers' association packing house.

Meyer is said to have been engaged in affixing some hooks to the top of a door when he lost his balance and was obliged to jump to a cement floor seven feet below. The fractures were revealed by an X-ray examination. He is under the care of Dr. John B. Craig.

Invitation to the Ladies of Upland and Vicinity to Visit the Hostess Club of Upland

We know there are a number of ladies in this community who would be very much interested in the recently organized "Hostess Club of Upland" if they knew what delightful and instructive meetings are now being held on the second and the fourth Monday evenings of each month at Viola's Cafe on East Ninth Street. Here on these evenings we gather promptly at 6:30 o'clock for a simple but excellent home-cooked dinner, and spend an informal half hour or more enjoying it.

Then our program opens with quotations given by each member—not the old uninteresting ones, but pithy, wise, and merry ones that we all enjoy.

Following the brief business meeting we arrive at the real object of our Club. For this is more than a Club. It is a class, controlled by the guiding hand of a very capable and well-known instructor from Chaffey Union High School, Miss Lois LeBaron Avery. It is a class organized for the purpose of aiding the individual in acquiring greater ease in meeting the public, in increasing her vocabulary, and in using more correct expressions in speaking. It is an aid to her in acquiring ease of manner in facing a group, enabling her to think while standing before that group, and teaching her to express her thoughts clearly, concisely, and in an interesting manner. This can only be done by practice and it is for this purpose, too, that we who are now attending the class have formed the club.

We have had some most interesting, instructive, and amusing speeches given by the members, all of which we have enjoyed, and we have been benefited thereby.

We want more members! We need more members! We know if you ladies who read this will come to our club once as a visitor you will want to come again as a regular attendant. There are no dues to pay, no special requirements, except the regular attendance required by any night school class. Every woman in the community who is interested is welcome. So COME! Meet with us once—see how you enjoy the meetings, and JOIN!

Telephone to Miss Helen Hilty, president, at the city water office, No. 333, or call Miss Margaret Harris, secretary, at the Magnolia Mutual Building and Loan association, No. 614, a day or two in advance of the meetings. They will gladly give you any information about our club. But even though you do not phone COME! The Viola Cafe will have a place for you and plenty to eat, and the Hostess Club of Upland will give you a hearty welcome.

Friends Boost Caldwell

Ontario Legionnaires Support Prominent Ex-Service Leader For State Commander

As the result of action taken on Monday at the meeting of the Ontario American Legion, Col. H. J. Caldwell, past commander of the Ontario post, and at present district commander, may become a candidate for the office of state commander.

For some time there has been talk of advocating his candidacy in a number of posts in this district, and with the home post enthusiastically supporting him it is believed the movement in his behalf will soon gain much momentum.

Colonel Caldwell has so far taken no action in behalf of his candidacy, the boom being started by his friends, but it is believed if his district approves the movement he will be willing to become an active candidate.

Members of the Ontario post are planning to go in large numbers to the county council meeting to be held in Redlands May 14, and at that time to put forward Colonel Caldwell's name as a candidate for the Legion's highest state office.

The Colonel is one of the most popular members of the Ontario post and as district commander he has been very active in Legion affairs of the district. At present he is reluctant to talk about his prospective candidacy and feels that only the united support of his own post will cause him to become an active candidate.

First move in the plan to place his name before the Legion men of the state was taken on Monday night when members of his home post so decided.

TWO PRIZES MAY COME TO LIONS

Attendance Contests Close With Local Group in Line For Honors

One and perhaps two prizes are today headed toward the Upland Lions club as the result of one hundred per cent attendance by the members in two contests, closing this week.

Fred E. Draper, secretary, announced at the meeting of the club in The Sycamores yesterday noon that in the spring contest, starting six weeks ago, the local club was 100 per cent and that in another contest, starting in October, the club was second when the report was last made.

Harold C. Cook, principal of the Upland Junior High school, reviewed historical events leading up to the Revolutionary war, this well-delivered address adding more information to an address on the same subject last week.

Vitally interested in history, Mr. Cook gave minute details of the various acts preceding the war. He pointed out that for many years England and France were busy sparring at each other, with the result that the colonies were left to plan their own destiny. When England finally took a hand in trying to collect exhorbitant taxes from the colonies, the war came, he explained, with history not being clear as to which nations fired first. Henry Harms was program chairman.

Mention was made of three members having birthdays recently. They were Dr. Bert Foster, F. W. Williams and E. C. Rosenberger.

Ted Clark, district Lion club governor, of San Bernardino; W. L. Cook of Ontario, father of Harold Cook; F. W. Wallihan and Howard de Berard were visitors at the club.

On May 9, wives of the club directors will be in charge of the meeting.

Norman S. Lawson told of the ticket sales for the Lions club benefit program tomorrow night. Herbert C. Naylor spoke on the district convention to be held at Long Beach next month.

Waltonians to See Moving Pictures, and Hear Speaker

Opening of the fishing season is the reason for postponment of the Old Baldy chapter Izaak Walton league meeting until May 8, but at that time appropriate program will be given, according to Clair E. Kirk, secretary. The regular meeting was to have been held next Wednesday.

The meeting will be held in Drapers' funeral parlor, with special moving pictures of fishing and duck hunting and an address by a sportsman, on the program.

MANY FEATURES ON PROGRAM TONIGHT

Lions Club Benefit Performance Will Attract Many to Grammar School

What is expected to be one of the most varied and entertaining programs ever given in Upland will be given in the Upland grammar school tonight.

At least four different events, each one an interesting program in itself, will entertain hundreds of Uplanders. The program starts at 7:30.

Proceeds will be used by the Upland Lions club in providing playgrounds for local children. School children of the city this week sold several hundred tickets and indications this afternoon were that the performers would be greeted by a capacity house.

The Chaffey Symphony orchestra will play.

The Neopolitan Troubadors, world famous comedians, will be featured.

The Santa Ana Lions club quartet, popular for its entertaining concerts, will sing.

The Andrews Ensemble, players of musical bells and glasses, and Professor Williams, magician and "conjurer," are scheduled as the highlight of the amusement program.

Dr. Merton E. Hill will speak in observance of Public School week. R. D. Dysart, a leader n the recently organized Upland Air club, will tell of the club's plans.

The program being sponsored by the Lions club, members of the club will tonight be in charge of the auditorium and audience.

The general committee, Norman S. Lawson, chairman, J. W. Mehl and Ray Flickinger, have assigned the members to various duties as follows:

Ushers, Glenn M. Atwood, Ray W. Flickinger, Francis Rogers, W. S. Coffin, Ralph Almquist, Henry Harms, Earl Johnson, Milton Huxtable, and Everett Henry.

Cloak room attendants, Fred E. Parker, I. J. Linkey and Herbert Manker.

Hall greeters, Wiley W. Mather, J. Emory Sargent, R. Frank Lemon, Ray C. Norton, Leigh Thompson, J. F. Sawyer, and A. W. Burt.

LOCAL BOY SCOUTS WILL COMPETE IN RODEO ON MAY 17

Annual Event and Competition Will Be Held at Chaffey

LEADERS MEET TONIGHT

Upland Troop Won National Honor in Wall Scaling Last Year

May 17 is the date for the annual Boy Scout Rodeo for this district and final arrangements for the event, to be held in Ontario, will be discussed at a meeting in the Ontario Legion clubhouse tonight.

At that meeting each scout district will be given certain quotas to reach as to ticket sales and the program of activity will be arranged. Scout troops will compete as in former years, but the contests this year will be more extensive than formerly, according to an announcment today.

Representatives of service clubs and American Legion posts will meet tonight. The Upland Legion will be represented by Arthur Pehl, Thomas Howarton and Earl Marsh.

National recognition came at last year's rodeo to Upland troop No. 1 as the result of its winning the wall scaling contest. Time made by the boys in that contest set a new national mark. Consequently the local troops are preparing for the rodeo on an extensive scale.

From now until May 17 Boy Scout committees will handle details in connection with the event and give to the community the best rodeo ever sponsored in the Old Baldy district.

The rodeo last year was held in Pomona. The rodeo this year will be held on the Chaffey field.

Popular Singers at Methodist Church on Sunday Night

A special treat is in store for those who attend the evening services at the Upland Methodist church Sunday. Miss Carol Shollenbarger and Lewis Hammen, both of Redlands and formerly members of the University of Redlands glee clubs, will be present and will sing. They have announced their selections as "While the Earth Remaineth" by Peace, and "Calm as the Night" by Gatze.

Both of these singers have won recognition in the Southern California Eisteddfod. The public is cordially invited to attend the service.

Miss Harriet Hiller is in Los Angeles seeing "The Strange Interlude" at the Biltmore theater.

Mennonite Church of Upland Wins Attendance Honors at Missionary Union Convention

Members of the First Mennonite church of Upland won the attendance record at the twenty-ninth annual convention of the Woman's Missionary Union yesterday, when they sent a delegation of 26 women to the all-day meeting at Westminster Presbyterian church, Ontario.

Mrs. John Barron Toomay was elected president of the Union for the ensuing year, succeeding Mrs. Frank C. Buffington of Upland.

Mrs. Leon Durham of Upland was elected vice president at large and Mrs. A. J. Colgan of Upland was chosen secretary. Mrs. Jacob Jesson of Ontario was re-elected to the office of treasurer.

Official registration showed an attendance of 186, but visitors who dropped in for various sessions swelled the number to well over 200. The Union embraces the evangelical churches of Upland, Ontario, Chino, Cucamonga and vicinity and all were represented at the meeting.

The meeting opened at 9:45 a. m. with invocation by the Rev. Benjamin A. Fye of Ontario. Miss Hazel Harker of Pomona, a returned missionary from Japan, told interestingly of work among the Japanese in Los Angeles. Miss Grace McConnaughey was another missionary on the morning program, taking "Sunrise in Shansi" for her subject.

Dr. James L. Barton, member of the foreign mission board of the Congregational church, was the principal speaker at the afternoon session, presenting interesting information regarding mission activities.

Mrs. Eva Mosely gave a fine address on "Tibet" and Miss Hilda Helstrom of Pasadena, a Korean missionary, gave a very complete impersonation of a Korean girl and recited the trials through which she has to pass.

The musical program was contributed to by Miss Jean Bell, Miss Alta Hamilton and Miss Marion Sturdivant and congregational singing was led by the Rev. Lester Hostetler of Upland.

Mrs. Buffington, retiring president of the Union, presided at the meeting. Vice presidents representing the various churches embraced by the Union will be announced later.

INJURED IN FALL

Fermil Robles, an employe of the Lucas Ranching Co., suffered lacerations about the head and body bruises yesterday when he fell from a high ladder which he was using to pick oranges. It was at first feared that Robles had suffered broken ribs, but an X-ray examination at the San Antonio Community hospital failed to reveal a fracture. He is under the care of Dr. J. B. Craig.

Swarm of Bees Cause S.O.S. at Nurse's Home

Mrs. Lottie Fuller, city nurse, who is always helping others, was recently forced to call for help for herself. Bees were the reason. About a week ago a swarm of bees decided to make their home around and behind the chimney at the side of her house and started their honeycomb back of the weatherboarding.

While it had not yet exactly developed into a sweet time, yet things have been humming at the home for the past week. Mrs. Fuller called in an expert bee man and steps have been taken to drive out the intruders.

TEAM MANAGERS ARE SELECTED

Leaders Planning Intensive Training For Upland Ball Players

Four men to manage the four Upland baseball teams were announced today, each team is playing practice games, poles for the diamond will be set tomorrow morning, lights will be placed by Tuesday and other work will be done soon.

These facts indicate rapid progress is being made in this city's twilight baseball activity.

The managers are I. J. Linkey, of the Merchants'; Roscoe Dinger of the Modern Woodmen; Cecil Myers of the 20-30 club, and Enos Leaman of the Upland Lemon Growers' association.

Merchants played at Guasti Tuesday night, this being their practice game. Guasti won 5 to 3. Tonight the Merchants and the Modern Woodmen will tangle at Cucamonga.

Radio Ordinance to Be Before Council

Seeking to better radio reception conditions in Upland, a proposed ordinance will soon be presented to the Upland council. Petitions requesting the passage of the ordinance are posted for signatures by the local radio dealers.

The proposed ordinance is similiar to the radio ordinance of the city of Los Angeles. Several cities in the Orange Belt have such an ordinance and the local radio fans believe the proposed measure will be effective if adopted here.

Mrs. Alice Tapley and daughter, Christine, of Los Angeles, are spending the week at the Claremont Inn and are visiting friends in this community. Miss Tapley and Miss Clara Lou Nisbet were formerly university room-mates.

TODAY'S BIBLE TEXT

The desire of the slothful killeth him; for his hands refuse to labor.—Prov. 22:25.

For Husbands Only

We don't know how it all started, but back in Michigan the other day someone started to figure out what a housewife who had lived on a farm for 40 years in that state had earned.

A small value was put on her "production." She was given a small credit for every loaf of bread baked, for the cookies and all the pies, for the many thousands of bushels of potatoes peeled and cooked; she was credited with a nominal amount for the canned fruit, for the beds she made, for the ironing she did, for the number of pieces of clothes that she washed, for the mending she did for the whole family. At one-fifth of the usual charge for trained nurses, she was given credit for caring for the sick of the family. We presume she was also given a fraction of a cent for every child's face that was properly washed, including due attention to the neck as most small boys request.

When it was all added the total was the amazing amount of $137,000. Was it paid? Well, how much does the average man pay his wife for running the household for him?

No price was put on the love, the self-sacrifice, the courage, the faith and the good cheer that this good wife "threw in" as she produced this $137,000. The spiritual and the unseen things have no price tag on them. But if you could figure all they were worth during those forty years on the farm, who could count the cost?

Men, what do you do for the best friend you have—your wife?

—O—

Hoover Warns Us

In one of the most straight-from-the-shoulder talks that ever came from the lips of a president of the United States, Herbert Hoover on Monday told members of the Associated Press and through them the whole world, that our country's very foundations are threatened by the lawless spirit that is rampant everywhere.

I am wondering whether the time has not come to realize . . . that we are not suffering from an ephemeral crime wave, but from a subsidence of our foundations.

These words of the president have startled the entire country and well they may. Conditions have become so grave that it needed the voice of a prophet to speak out and warn the people and Hoover has told the truth so plainly that even the scoffers at law have been jarred.

If this nation is to go forward in its great career, there will soon have to be an "about face" with regard to law observance. All that we have is based on respect for law. Here in Upland, our homes, our citrus groves, the money in our banks—all are safe only when law is respected and only when law observance comes not from uniformed officers but from the heart of the people. As Hoover says, "liberty itself has but one foundation, and that is in the law." If we can sneer at the law then we can prepare to say good-by to all we have.

Hoover did some straight thinking about the respect of law with regard to prohibition. Our wet friends have been trying to blame pretty much all the law breaking on the dry law. That is unfair, unjust and the sooner the wet propagandists are made to think straight along with the president, the sooner shall we rout the organized lawbreakers who have invaded every rank of society with every conceivable kind of crime, from murder to check raising. The president points out that less than eight per cent of the violations of law can be laid at the door of the 18th amendment. Does any who remembers anything at all about the "good old days" pretend to say that this is a much higher average than in pre-Volstead days? The plain facts are that law breaking is everywhere, from speeding on the highways and killing men and women to breaking into homes and taking the goods someone else has earned.

Those who would blame prohibition for the carnival of crime that is making life unsafe on the streets of our great cities, should remember htat we have come through the greatest and most hideous war the world ever knew and that this may have something to do with men's respect for law. Four years of upsetting of all the ideals of civilized life; four years of horror, of untold bloodshed, of rapine that sickens the soul, of starvation, of gassing, of millions of the cream of the world's young men sent to eternity, of millions of children left fatherless, of billions of dollars destroyed by the cruel hand of war,—all this has dealt civilization a staggering blow and in the reaction millions are wondering if there is any law and if so, if they have to obey it.

Hoover has torn aside the curtain and told us the plain, unvarnished truth. It is not truth pleasant to hear. It is truth that should galvanize us into straight thinking and clear acting. The might of law—not the myriad of statutes on the books—must be maintained if the rights we have enjoyed are to be given to our children. Millions of people who live in little communities like Upland must rise up and back the president. We must quit our haggling about prohibition being the basis of all human ills and get down to clear and honest thinking on the bigger problem of creating respect for law—the kind of respect that our grandfathers had. Seven men were stood up again a wall the other day in Chicago and shot in cold blood and no one has yet answered for that crime. That is the harvest of the seed of law breaking that is being reaped all around this land. That is the thing we shall have to clean up.

Well did Hoover quote Abraham and well may we read again his words:

Let every man remember that to violate the law is to trample on the blood of his father, and to tear the character of his own and his children's liberty. Let reverence for the laws be breathed by every American mother to the lisping babe that prattles on her lap. Let it be taught in the schools, in seminaries, in colleges. Let it be preached from the pulpit, proclaimed in the legislative halls, and enforced in courts of justice. And, in short, let it become the political religion of the nation, and let the old and the young, the rich and the poor, the grave and the gay of all sexes and tongues and colors and conditions sacrifice unceasingly upon its altar.

The Ideal Newspaper

HEMET NEWS—Whenever a new newspaper comes out, or an old paper is taken over by new interests, we read of its new policies which are to make it the ideal newspaper. But sad to say, the ideal newspaper is not yet with us. For when it comes, its policy will be as those words we find in Phillipians 4:8:

> . . . whatsoever things are true, whatsoever thing are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report . . . .
> And when a paper with this ideal policy comes along, where are the ideal folk who will subscribe to it?

CIGARETTE ADVERTISING

Glendora Gleaner: Cigarette advertising has assumed a stage that is disgusting to decent people and should be suppressed. One can hardly tune in on many of the broadcasts now but he is informed that cigarette smoking for women has all the virtues known. They make them fat, if slim; and make them slim, if fat. They clear the voice and make the blind to see. Of all the rot ever conceived this is about the worst.

The radio is bad enough, but one can turn it off as soon as the announcer begins his diatribe of the virtues of cigarettes. But the bill boards are not so easily disposed of. They stare at one from every road side. Women are reaching for a cigarette. Women known by name to the world by the number of husbands they have had are shown as blushing brides, puffing a cigarette. But the climax for affronting public taste is the bill board showing a school boy and a school girl, both smoking cigarettes while they look sensually into each other's eyes.

It would seem that even the tobacco companies would have better judgment than to so insult public taste. For though there are many women who do smoke, the great body of women do not, and their sensibilities are outraged by the display.

HOME OWNING on a Small Salary

IT MAY surprise you to know that fully half of the homes in this country are owned by men who make less than $2000 a year.

How do they do it? Through loans such as those made by this association. These loans are put upon a monthly repayment basis about like rent. Both interest and principal are included; one mortgage stays in force, eliminating costly renewals; never any large sum to meet. This is the one plan that helps you to get out of debt, easily, and over a period of years, it is distinctly cheaper.

We loan money to build or buy a great many homes which never WOULD and never COULD have been owned in any other way.

You can do it, too, if you are now paying rent regularly. Come in and let us tell you how.

The school enjoyed a delightful outing today at Fairmont Park near Riverside. Both teachers and students had a fine day boating, playing tennis and pitching quoits. Incidentally a big picnic dinner was on the program.

The conservatory of music of the college will give a recital next Thursday evening, April 30, at 8:30 in the auditorium, under the direction of the two instructors, Hugh C. Benson and Roy Fletcher, teachers of piano and voice respectively. Representative students of the music department will take part on the program which promises to be a treat. Last Thursday evening, April 18, the dormitory girls entertained the dormitory boys at a picnic supper at Lone Hill. Prof and Mrs. H. B. Brubaker and Miss Helen Gish, the preceptress, were guests of honor.

The class in argumentation is planning two interesting debates in open forum. The first question to be argued will be "Resolved, that the British government is antagonistic to the welfare of the people of India" and the second, "Resolved, that a department of education with a secretary in the president's cabinet should be established in the United States."

Next Sunday evening a group of students will accompany Rev B. M. Books to Val Verde where he will speak and a quartette will sing at a service there.

Dr. Frank Keyes, Cucamonga Man's Brother, Is Dead

(By News Cucamonga Corespondent)

George E. Keyes, of Baseline avenue, Cucamonga, received the sad message Tuesday evening, of the death of his brother, Dr. Frank Keyes, aged 63 years, at at his home in Castella, near Mt. Shasta, after a lingering illness. The news came as a shock to his relatives here, as the latest word had been that the sick man was progressing more favorably and relatives who had come from Minnesota and from Los Angeles had returned to their homes, in the encouraging belief that Dr. Keyes would soon conquer the trouble.

But complications set in, with sinking spells and Tuesday afternoon he passed away. Dr. Keyes was well known here, during his frequent visits to the home of his brother. The remains will be taken to Portland where interment will take place. His brother, Geo. E. Keyes, will not be able to attend the funeral services. Dr. and Mrs. Keyes have owned and resided at a beautiful mountain resort on the Sacramento River for some years, but which will now be sold by Mrs. Keyes.

Toting Around Jug of Partly Used Liquor Costs $30

Something new in the line of "pocket flasks" was introduced in Upland Wednesday morning when L. J. Steffel, who resides at a local hotel, was arrested by Patrolman W. E. Jenkins for appearing on Ninth street in an intoxicated condition and was found toting a partially consumed gallon jug of liquor under his coat.

Steffel, who is 50 years old, was also charged with illegal possession of intoxicating liquor. As he is employed with a highway construction gang operating in the Cucamonga district and as his services were declared badly needed, Judge George R. Crane paroled him to Walter Hirst, former Cucamonga constable. Steffel appeared Thursday afternoon in Judge Crane's court and paid a fine of $30.

CAUSE FOR WORRY

A little while ago Dean Inge gave a young lady of his acquaintance a very bad quarter of an hour, albeit unwittingly. On her wedding day he sent her a telegram which, as received, tersely ran: "John 4:18." On looking up the text, she was horrified to read: "For thou hast had five husbands; and he whom thou now hast is not thy husband."

After they had restored the young woman to consciousness, inquiry was made at the telegraph office, and it was found that the operator had omitted the letter or numeral indicating the first epistle. I John 4:18 reads: "There is no fear in love; but perfect love casteth out fear." —Boston Transcript.

Turned Tables

"Shut that door! Where were you brought up—in a barn?"

The man addressed complied meekly and silently. The first speaker observed that he was in tears and going over to the man he apologized.

"Oh, come," he said, soothingly, "you shouldn't take it to heart because I asked if you were raised in a barn"

"That's it, that's it," sobbed the other. "I WAS brought up in a barn and it makes me homesick every time I hear an ass bray." — Tit-Bits.

Amplifiers Placed in Granada Theater

Manager Pedrick announces the installation of new huge amplifiers in the Granada theatre, large enough for a house twice its size. The original equipment was not large enough to bring out the depth of tone expected in talking pictures, but the work completed yesterday places the Granada on a par with any of the Los Angeles theatres using talking pictures.

The Hostess Club of Upland held a very enjoyable meeting Monday evening at Viola's cafe where an excellent dinner was served. The club president, Miss Helen Hilty, presided at the opening of the meeting and during the brief business session. The meeting was then turned over to Miss June Bishop, the hostess for the evening, who presided during the program, which was presented by three speakers, each one being followed by a constructive criticism by a member. Mrs. Mark H. Bailey spoke on "Work," a subject which she succeeded in lifting out if its usual prosiac associations. Her critic was Mrs. Geo. L. Winter. Miss LeOla R. Lee discussed "Vesting Title" in a very interesting way and was criticised by Mrs. Nora M. Eells. With the president, Mrs. L. R. Bradley, presiding a business meeting was held and Mrs. Leon Durham provided a real treat by reading a beautiful poem ,a paraphrase of the poem "The House by the Side of the Road."

The greater part of the afternoon was spent in sewing, the members making piflow covers for the men at the veteran's tuberculosis hospital at San Fernando. Two dozen pillows were covered and a number of extra covers made, a few silk ones, but most of them of lovely gay cretonnes, no two being alike. Within a few days some of the club members will take them over to the hospital at San Fernando. During the sewing and for a time afterward the women enjoyed friendly visiting and discussions of interesting topics.

The next meeting will be held with Mrs. W. B. Cavers on Eleventh street.

EARLY HISTORY OF STATE TOLD

F. F. Palmer Tells Woman's Club Fascinating Story of Early Explorations

Placing before his audience a vivid word picture of one of the greatest romantic periods in the history of the west coast, F. F. Palmer of Chaffey spoke before the Upland Woman's club Tuesday, his subject being "The Gateways of California."

First calling attention to the state's geographical location and the natural protection of desert, mountain and ocean which nature has provided, he gave a sweeping outline of the efforts, extending through centuries, that were made to find entrances into the coveted land, first by water, then by desert and last by mountain pass.

Beginning with the landing at San Diego of the first Spanish ships which had made a 58-day voyage from Mexico, Mr. Palmer told of the founding of the mission there, of the heartbreaking efforts made in finding Monterey, and finally of the discovery of San Francisco bay by a party of explorers traveling inland in an effort to reach Monterey. Many years later the missions were established at San Gabriel, San Juan Capistrano, Monterey and San Francisco, and many trips were made between these missions along the coast and by water. In their voyages up and down the coast vessels sighted the point which is now San Pedro harbor, but it was not until many years later that the harbor was discovered.

Touching briefly on events during the Spanish rule, the speaker came to the period when the state was under the rule of Mexico. It was at this time and extending over a period of years that the most colorful explorations in the history of the state were made. Down in Sonora, Mexico, the Spaniards sought a shorter inland route to California. So far the desert had successfully combated any attempt to find entrance that way. It was then the adventurous and courageous Batiste de Anza, securing military backing, set out from Sonora with about 35 men, a number of horses and equipment, and started seeking a way to California.

Mr. Palmer's graphic description of the hardships of that small band breaking trail across an unknown desert furnished a thrilling story. Assisted by a friendly Indian, the party finally crossed the Colorado at what is now Yuma. Heat, discouraged men, sand dunes where the horses floundered to their knees, being lost in the trackless waste, failed to daunt the fearless leader and at last de Anza and his party stood on the heights of the San Jacinto mountains and looked down upon the fertile lands of what is now Riverside and San Bernardino counties. Crossing the valley they reached San Antonio canyon and camped there for a time, killing numerous bears, a fact from which Bear canyon derived its name.

Mr. Palmer's narrative carried the explorers on to San Gabriel, to Monterey and San Francisco; told of the return of the intrepid man and his band over the same hazardous route to Sonora. Later de Anza again followed this San Carlos pass route with a larger band of colonists, when the hardships and suffering were even greater than the first time. It was not until 100 years later that the easy San Gorgonio pass was discovered.

The next gateway into California to be discovered, Mr. Palmer said, was Cajon pass, which was found 50 years before the coming of Jedediah Smith, and which for many years was the route used for all traffic between the coast and the East, it being used by the old Butterfield stages which made the trip from San Francisco to St. Louis in 21 days.

It was some time after the discovery of Cajon pass that San Gorgonio was located.

These are only a part of the many interesting facts Mr. Palmer gave in his fascinating story.

Ratan Devi, Known Around the World as Singer of Hindoo Songs, Coming to Claremont

CLAREMONT, April 25.—Sponsored by Pomona college, Ratan Devi, a singer of Hindoo folk and art-songs, and internationally famous as such, will appear in recital in Bridges Hall of Music next Monday evening, April 29. Ratan Devi has devoted her life to a study and interpretation of the folk songs of India; and lately has added to her programs a few exquisite examples of those of Andulusia, Hungary and medieval England .

Prof. Henry Purmort Eames, professor of musical art and aesthetics at Scripps college, says of her: "Having had the pleasure of hearing Ratan Devi in various cities, it becomes a privilege to endorse her artistry and the authenticity of her interpretations. Every lover of Oriental literature and art should attend this recital. Ratan Devi has lived for years in India and both knows and feels her Indian text and music. We need new discoveries and experiences of beauty if only to prove that beauty belongs to every man, and this fresh experience will surely come to every one who attends Ratan Devi's recital."

"Mom," said Junior, brushing up on his school work, "if you had a dollar and dad gave you five more, what would you have?" "I'd have hysterics," said the Mrs., acidly.

Home Economics Department of Chaffey H. S. Aids Much in Making Better Homes

Chaffey high school is taking active interest in the observance of "Better Homes in America" week, April 21-27, the home economics department being especially active in its participation.

This department, under the direction of Miss Lillian Graves, makes a study of home problems, cooking, sewing, furnishings, interior decorating, etc., and its work is a valuable part of any girl's education.

As its contribution to the week's program, the students in the elementary cooking class prepared a week's seasonal menus, one of which is given here as a sample of their work.

In explanation of the work of the home economics department, the following article was submitted to The News:

With the advent of the annual better-homes-week, let us rejoice that the homemaking departments are active in our schools and that they are yearly increasing in number and quality of work.

The influence of this training in home making in the public schools of our country is such that hundreds of thousands of homes have been made happier and healthier.

The high school program is no longer considered complete if it does not offer opportunity for training in at least some phase of this work. The entire scope of home-making is included in a thorough course in Home Economics and the demands for such a course is steadily increasing.

What girl and what home would not be benefited by courses which cover modern methods in household administration, selection and preparation of foods, nutrition, child welfare, home nursing and family expenditures?

Among their home problems covered in the study of clothing are cost, suitability, fabrics, shopping, color and design as well as garment construction. While the study of the house, its plans furnishing, equipping, decorating, and care are such that the trained worker may assume her duties with pride and confidence.

At Chaffey union high school, students may take two years of cooking and two years of sewing as a major in Home Economics. Two other choices of majors may be made also:

1. Two years of sewing and a year of Home Arts or a year of Interior Decoration.

2. Two years of cooking and a year of Home Arts or a year of Interior Decoration.

With such a wide choice of majors, Chaffey students are indeed fortunate and have every opportunity of training for the best of homes.

Following are two of the day's menus prepared by the cooking class:

Poached Egg on Toast
Lunch

Lemon Cream Pie

Big Payment Made By Woman's Club on the Clubhouse

An announcement of much interest to all the club members and also to many other citizens who are not members, was made Tuesday afternoon during the meeting of the Upland Woman's club. The club president, Mrs. J. Emory Sargent, stated that during the past year the club had paid $1,200 on the principal of the club's indebtedness, in addition to making the interest payments.

The club is now enjoying the third year of occupancy of the handsome club house, which together with the lot and the furnishings is valued at between $23,000 and $25,000. In this short time the debt has been so reduced that but $8,300 remains to be paid. Such a showing within three years is considered remarkable and reflects much credit upon those who have conducted the affairs of the club. Mrs. Sargent's announcement Tuesday of the $1,200 payment was received with much pleasure by the members.

"LEST WE FORGET," BY THE COMMANDER

Of the three hundred and sixty-five days of this year ---

Mother cheerfully labors for our comfort, worries about our welfare.

Just one day of all these is dedicated to the thoughtful appreciation or sacred memory of the women who have been the most powerful influences in our lives. Sunday—May the 12th—is the day.

It is our responsibility and pleasure to call your attention to this Day of Days—not alone from a merchandising standpoint, but because of the sentiment involved and as well—because well meaning folks just put off the actual business of getting something special for Mother on Her Day—until the day has passed into history—and some good woman is SECRETLY DISAPPOINTED.

No—it is true that she would never let you know the hurt of thoughtless neglect—she accepts that as she has accepted her trials, burdens and responsibilities—as a part of LIFE.

Each year we strive to have for your selection a more comprehensive array of Gifts for all occasions, but especially for

Mother's Day

This year's souvenir Butterfly Box of Mother's Day Candy is more handsome than ever. The Boxes, in three sizes, are beautiful, the sentiment is cheerful, the quality is supreme.

We have sweetened our assortment of Mother's Day Gifts with other new and unusual creations priced from Fifty Cents to Five Dollars.

Pleasing Cards, Memory Messages, Mother's Day Framed Mottoes—Special Stationery, and other delightful devices will carry your personal message with more than perfunctory flavor.

Time and again we——of the Trusty Crew have been thanked for our effort in calling these things to our customer's attention.

A Good-hearted fellow buying a Mother's Day Box of Candy for his Mother, and perhaps one for his Wife's Mother—forgets that his Wife is a Mother, too—we suggest the possibility and receive his gratitude as well as his order.

It Is the Romance of Business ---

The TOWN DOCTOR SAYS

MANY TOWNS ARE LIKE SOME MERCHANTS

They spend much time and money trying to attract new business when they are not getting all there is to get out of the business they already have.

There is, in the advertising business, what is called the "Golden Triangle" of every mercantile establishment. It is that space in front of the store where people who pass can see the store entrance and the windows. It is the vital point in every retail business; for no merchant can sell his wares (excluding mail order and telephone orders) unless the people come into the store. The advertising to reach the area so named is what is called "Point of Purchase" advertising. Its purpose is to stop the passerby, which is the one big reason for show windows and window displays. Through this medium the merchant attempts to attract attention, then create a desire to enter the store. American people buy by eye—what the eye doesn't see, the heart doesn't fancy.

Towns are exactly like stores in this general respect. If a town got all of the business from the traffic it already has, it is ten to one that it would never have to spend any money for additional business. But as long as there are towns, and the people in them remain human, they will probably continue to go out after more customers when they have not got all there is to be had from the traffic they already have.

Let us take automobile traffic as one angle of revenue or business for a town. Every strange automobile that passes through your city is worth a goodly sum—much more than most people think—but you must stop the car and get the passengers out of it, if you are going to get their business. Twenty percent of those people who tour by motor car are in the market for or can be sold a new location. Every motorist can be made to be the cause for more motorists coming to your town. An analyzation of this means of town income shows many surprising facts, chief of which is first, that very few towns recognize the business that can be had from it.

One morning a few years ago I left Chicago very early for points east. To save time and avoid traffic I took a back road, but much to my chagrin I encountered a freight train whose engineer evidently had no place to go and was in no hurry to get there. The half hour that I was delayed I have never regretted, for while waiting there I saw that which to me was, is and always will be a picture in life of wonderful significance.

Just inside the fence from where I sat parked lay a calf of less than six months of age, lazily dozing in the morning sunshine. The morning was warm and the flies were more than numerous. Around the calf were many goslings, one of which was some five feet or more away, lazily sunning himself with eyes half open, but occasionally rousing sufficiently to pick off a fly that came unsuspectingly close enough. Another little fellow had settled himself directly adjacent to and up against that which soon would be someone's veal steak, and was fast asleep. Had the calf moved, one little duck would have been no more. Two other little downy ones with much vim and quacking endurance were chasing their fool legs off trying to run down, overtake and devour elusive insects that were far too clever for them—BUT—there was another little duck standing at that portion of the reclining calf's anatomy where swish of tail and toss of head failed to disturb him, picking hundreds of flies off the calf's back—in other words, taking advantage of an opportunity.

To me the calf was a highway, the flies were motorists, and the goslings were towns, each in a true-to-form stage of wakefulness, activity and resourcefulness.

Your town is one of those ducks.

Barthelmess Held by Police When Wears Prison Garb

It may be safe enough for Richard Barthelmess, First National star, to drive to the studio made up as a prizefighter, a French poilu, or an American doughboy, but it's a different matter if he dons the uniform of a convict and takes a different route to the studio, thus missing the officer who recognizes him.

Barthelmess went through Hollywood one day while filming a prison sequence and was in quite a hurry, being rather late for his studio call. As he often does, he had donned his makeup and uniform at home so as to save time. In his haste he commenced to cross a traffic intersection before the signal had completely changed. The officer at the corner rebuked him and in order to divest himself of a lecture upon the traffic law's virtues climbed on the running board. Beneath Barthelmess' overcoat he discovered the convict's uniform. (It was a replica of the kind worn at San Quentin.) He also noted the heavy prison shoes, mudcoated and thoroughly in charected.

It took fifteen minutes for Barthelmess to prove that he was Richard Barthelmess and that he was made up for his starring role in "Weary River," the new First National feature which comes to the Granada Theatre Sunday, Monday and Tuesday. Driver's license, a telephone call to the studio, and a chance friend passing by, helped to establish his true identity much to the chagrin of the officer.

Frank Lloyd directed "Weary River" with Betty Compson in the feminine lead. It is based on the short story by Courtney Ryley Cooper and was adapted by Bradley King.

The Scriptural assurance from Proverbs, "He that followeth after righteousnes and mercy findeth life, righteousness and honour," is the Golden Text for the Lesson-Sermon on "Probation after Death," Sunday, in Churches of Christ, Scientist, branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass.

The Lesson-Sermon consists of citations from the Bible and correlative selections from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy.

Among the Scriptural verses are the words of Paul to Titus: "For the grace of God that bringeth salvation hath appeared to all men, teaching us that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly, in this present world; looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ; who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify unto himself a peculiar people, zealous of good works."

One of the correlative passages from Science and Health contains the following words of Mrs. Eddy: "As man falleth asleep, so shall he awake. As death findeth mortal man, so shall he be after death, until probation and growth shall effect the needed change."

Mrs. Lottie Fuller Shows More Than 100 Babies Visit Clinic Each Month

Over one hundred baby visits per month for the last three months at the Well Baby Clinic is the showing made by the City Nurse, Mrs. Lottie Fuller, in her report for January, February, and March. A grand total of 306 babies accompanied by their mothers and 90 visitors to the Clinic beside. Every Tuesday afternoon Mrs. Fuller spends at the library in the basement and Dr. Mary Craig Williamson is usually on hand to help keep the well babies well.

Mrs. Fuller also during this time visited 55 families, making 16 welfare visits beside. At her home, out of hours, Mrs. Fuller held 35 consultations. She seems to be a 24-hour woman.

Two children were taken to a doctor to have a medical consultation and six had their eyes examined.

For the Welfare committee, Mrs. Fuller investigated four families and found them in need of groceries, which need was supplied. Four new pairs of shoes were bought and given to children of the Sierra Vista school, and 11 pairs of old shoes were given to as many children, besides a box of miscellaneous clothing.

THE DOUGLAS SAGES ARE VICTIMS OF CONSPIRACY

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Sage, who were married on Wednesday, April 27, in Los Angeles, were the victims Thursday evening of a dark conspiracy perpetrated by members of the 20-30 club and their wives and friends.

Going to the Sage home in Koster Kourt, the self-invited guests compelled Mr. and Mrs. Sage to accompany them to the jail, where Mr. Sage was securely locked up. Later the young couple were taken for a ride that was not of their own choosing. However, the punishment finally ended and the friends enjoyed a merry evening.

Portrays Part of Ramona For the Sixth Time

Leading romantic roles in the picturesque Ramona Pagent, southern California's historical Oberammergau, will be taken by Dorise Schukow, portraying Ramona for the sixth time, and Herbert Heyes, widely known stage star and featured National Broadcast Radio artist, according to an announcement just made by Edward Poorman, president-manager of the outdoor spectacle to open April 20 at Hemet.

Miss Shukow, prominent star of outdoor drama, is well known to thousands for her partrayals of the Indian heroine in five out of six previous presentations of the colorful drama, which has grown to rival the famed "Passion Play" of the Bavarian Tyrol as a community festival. Heyes, who will enact "Alessandro," Ramona's lover, for the first time, is nationally known for his appearances in stage productions opposite such stars as Nazimova, Marjorie Rambeau and others. He has co-starred with Anna Q. Nilsson on the screen and has appeared opposite Theda Bara, Constance Talmadge, Betty Blythe and others.

For the last five months he has been featured by the National Broadcasting Company over the countrywide radio network, and oddly enough, he recently took part in an aerial rendition of "Ramona" from San Francisco.

With such outstanding stars in leading roles, elaborate preparations are being made by the people of Hemet and San Jacinto to outshine all previous persentations this year. The fiesta players and others of the cast of 200 already have begun rehearsals under the supervision of Phil Whiting, director of the spectacle, who has succeeded to the directorial toga of the late Garnet Holme.

Preparations are being made to accommodate a throng exceeding the 20,000 who viewed the pageant last year at the presentation on three succeeding week-ends. Parking accommodations for 5,000 automobiles are being prepared within a stone's throw of the bowl, and arrangements are made to permit motorists to drive to the rim of the amphitheatre to discharge passengers directly into the isles. The bowl has seating accommodations for 5,400.

Wild Flowers

Johnson's Pasture Now Bed of Blooms; No Picking Allowed

CLAREMONT, April 25.—Bright golden poppies and many other varieties of wild flowers are in full bloom at Johnson's pasture, several hillsides being completely covered with the deep orange-colored blossoms, bluish purple lupin, blue-grass, brodiaea and the delicate yellow tidy tips and johnny-jump-ups.

"This week is the best time to see the flowers," according to the owner of the pasture J. D. Johnson, who has planted the acres of hill land with a special mixture of wild flower seeds.

The hills are beautiful beyond description, according to several Claremonters who visited the pasture Sunday. The road has recently been improved by Mr. Johnson and the hill top from where the view is most amazing is easily accessible by automobile.

As the flowers have been planted and are on private property persons are asked not to pick them.

Mrs. Winter Is New President Woman's Club

ginally appointed on the hostess committee, but because she has not fuly recovered from the effects of her recent accident, she confined her participation to attendance at the luncheon.

Mrs. E. C. Rosenberger was in charge of the decorations and a novel and very pretty arrangement resulted. The tables were placed in a circle in the center of which stood a Maypole in a beautiful bank of greenery and white daisies, and entwined with orchid and old rose crepe paper, the colorful streamers radiating from the Maypole to the tables, which themselves were gay with lovely sweetpeas in all the pastel shades and bright rainbow colored nut cups. On the stage was a profusion of lovely blooms, there being great baskets and jars of purple and white lilac and pink and white cherokee roses, while other baskets of flowers were placed at advantageous places about the clubrooms.

There were two luncheon speakers. J. Emory Sargent, in recognition of "Better Homes" week which is being observed nationally, spoke on Better Homes." Passing over the usual thought of household economics, Mr. Sargent stressed the importance of young people buying a home, saying that those who form the habit of renting are more likely to place their money and their interests in outside affairs. His theory is that the home owner has "something to tie to," a very steadying influence, and is more inclined to try to make his home a "real" home, a place where the young folk like to gather, and not just a place for daughter to wait until the "boy friend" honks the horn at the sidewalk. The true home, he said is not the brick and mortar, but the spirit within the house, the influence of the parents, and he quoted effectively from Edgar Guest, "It takes a heap o' livin' in a house to make it home."

The "Gateways to California" was the subject handled in a very interesting way by F. F. Palmer, of Chaffey. Mr. Palmer told of the various entries into California, desert trails, mountain passes and bays, beginning with the discovery in the early mission days of the San Diego bay and more than a century later of the finding of San Francisco bay. He recalled the efforts of the Spanish padres to find an overland entrance from Mexico and of the trek of the 49'er and the coming of the railroads.

At the conclusion of the program, Mrs. J. E. Sargent, president, presided at a business meeting and the election of officers was held.

In reporting for the nominating committee, which included Mrs. F. H. Manker, chairman, Mrs. R. F. Lemon and Mrs. Nellie Mason, Mrs. Manker paid high tribute to the efficient administration of club affairs by the present official staff and expressed confidence that the officers being nominated would work with equal harmony and efficiency. The officers nominated were unanimously elected.

Mrs. Winter, as the incoming president, automatically becomes delegate to the state federation meeting in Santa Cruz in May. The elected delegate is Mrs. Nora M. Eells.

The present officers and directors of the club are: Mrs. J. E. Sargent, president; Mrs. O. A. Thompson, vice-president Mrs. Nora Eells, recording secretary; Mrs. Geo. Brown, Corresponding secretary; Mrs. J. F. Sawyer, treasurer; Mrs. Geo. Winter, parliamentarian, Mrs. E. C. Mehl, auditor, and directors, Mrs. Chas. V. Barr, Mrs. E. O. Bowden, Mrs. Leon Durham, Mrs. H. W. Hawkinson, Mrs. T. M. Nichols, Mrs. R. C. Norton, Mrs. N. G. Pehl, Mrs. L. D. Temple, Mrs. F. W. Palmer.

Anticipating the Plunge

With funds obtained from the performance in the Upland grammar school at 7:30 tonight, the Upland Lions club will provide a plunge and other facilities for the youth of the city. Hundreds of little tots like the one shown here— and perhaps older ones—will make use of the equipment. With the support of the community tonight, the equipment will be assured.

Photograph Made of Miss Williams' Big Wistaria Vine

Speaking of wistarias, and there are a number of the fine vines in Upland, an especially beautiful one is growing and blooming in Miss Lillian Williams' back yard, 331 Euclid avenue. The vine has been permitted to ramble at will and it has chosen to exercise its freedom in an artistic manner, draping itself gracefully over the porch and nearby trees. The festoons of blossoms being of unusual size and length. So beautiful is this particular wistaria that it was deemed worthy of being photographed and Mrs. Edna Swan has made an excellent picture of it. The vine has been blooming for some time and is still worth a trip to see.

Hospital Notes

Three Ontario babies have been born at the San Antonio hospital within the past week: to Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Green, on April 22, a son; to Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Gemmil, on April 25, a son, and to Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Stewart, on April 26 a daughter.

The hospital gratefully acknowledges the receipt of gifts to its supply shelves. The Ontario Woman's club sent a generous supply of jellies and Mrs. W. B. West and E. S. Bishop each a box of oranges.

The supply of canned fruit and jelly in the pantry of the hospital is getting low. "A word to the wise is sufficient."
